

PRESS RELEASE

Bend, Oregon – October, 2018 - (NewsWire.com)

ALEX – Alternative Experts, LLC (ALEX) as part of n-Link Corporation’s Small Business Team, has been awarded the U.S. Army’s Information Technology Enterprise Solutions - 3 Services (ITES-3S) contract vehicle.

ITES-3S is a $12.1 billion contract comprised of a 5-year base contract with 4 Option Periods. The n-Link Team of Small Businesses will leverage their niche and expert capabilities to provide end-to-end solutions through services and related incidental hardware to include worldwide development, deployment, operation, maintenance, and sustainment requirements. Task orders may also include support to analyze requirements, development and implementation of recommended solutions, and operation and maintenance of legacy systems and equipment for the US Army and to all Federal Contracting Officers in which a delegation of procurement authority (DPA) has been executed to place task orders against this MAIDIQ contract. Places of performance include government locations worldwide.

Ms. Sandra Green, founder and CEO of n-Link stated, “Our Small Business Team’s win is a testament to its excellence in customer service evidenced by our collective outstanding past performance ratings. Our Team’s partners are nimble and innovative while also sophisticated and experienced using industry best practices to serve our customers’ missions in Enterprise Solutions, Cyber Security, Enterprise Infrastructure Implementation and Operations, Business Process reengineering, IT Supply Chain Management, IT Education and Training, and Network and Systems Operations.”
